Part VI

General and Final Provisions

Article (27):

In the event the land allocated for the investment project is part of the State property and the investor has finalized all contracts and permits necessary to establish the project, then if any claim arises with regard to the ownership of the land, it should be addressed to the General Authority of Land Survey & Urban Planning. However, the filing of any such claim shall not hinder the work progress in the investment project.

Article (28):

Investment projects established in accordance with the provisions of this law and the laws in force shall enjoy the incentives or benefits provided for in the applicable laws.

Article (29):

a) Investment projects existing at the time of the enactment of this law which have already acquired tax exemptions under Law No. 22 of 2002 shall continue enjoying such granted tax exemptions up to the end of the period specified for these exemptions. However, such projects shall be required to pay the prescribed taxes and fees which are not covered by such exemptions.

b) Registered investment projects in accordance with Law No. 22 of 2002 which did not commence activity or production on the date of the enactment of this law shall be required to commence activity or production within a period not exceeding two years starting from the date of the enactment of this law in order for them to enjoy the incentives provided for in paragraph (a).

c) Customs exemptions under the Customs Law shall apply as follows:

1. Exemptions provided for in the international conventions in force to which the Republic is a signing party, and the agreements concluded with the international and regional organizations, or foreign agencies which have completed the constitutional procedures. Any customs exemptions in contradiction with the Customs Law shall be nullified.

2. Fixed and imported assets to establish investment and industrial projects consisting of machinery and equipment including fishing and marine freight vessels and aircrafts for air transport based on the lists prepared and submitted by the General Investment Authority in accordance with the Customs Law and its Executive Regulation.

3. Production inputs of licensed and registered industrial investment projects are exempted from customs duties at a rate of 50% in accordance with the relevant regulations and requirements as provided for in the Executive Regulation of the Customs Law. The investor may not combine both exemption incentives stipulated in this paragraph on the one hand and those exemptions stipulated in the international conventions in force to which the Republic is a signing party and in the convention for the establishment of the Arab Free Trade Zone on the other. The investor is required to choose one of either.

d) For the purposes of implementing the provisions of the preceding paragraphs, the Authority established under this law shall replace the General Investment Authority with regard to initiating the required procedures to determine the activity and the term of the due exemption according to the provisions of paragraph (a) of Article (20) of the former Investment Law No. 22 of 2002. It shall also be mandated to monitor and supervise those projects in accordance with the provisions of this law.

e) The Authority, Tax and Customs Authorities shall exchange data and information and they shall continuously coordinate for the implementation and application of the provisions of this article in compliance with the related provisions and terms in the relevant laws.

Article (30):

All competent authorities and governors of governorates shall exert sufficient efforts and cooperate with the Authority to enforce the provisions of this law so as to insure the delivery and execution of all the facilities stipulated in this law while coordinate with the Authority to implement its plans and programs within the framework of the One-Stop Shop system.

Article (31):

All fixed and moveable assets as well as the rights and liabilities of the previous authority shall be transferred to the General Investment Authority. Employees in the previous authority shall also be transferred to the General Investment Authority in accordance with the conditions, standards and criteria as specified in the Executive Regulation of this law.

Article (32):

The Executive Regulation of this law shall be issued by a decree from the Prime Minister based on the presentation made by the Board of Directors and after the approval of the Council of Ministers within a period not exceeding six months from the date of the enactment of this law.

Article (33):

Investment Law No. 22 of the year 2002 is nullified upon the enactment of this law.

Article (34):

Any provision conflicting with the provisions of this law shall be repealed.

Article (35):

This law shall come into force on the date of its enactment and it shall be published in the official Gazette.
